SECTION 1

50X1-HUM

It has been reported that on 14 April 1949, 1,200 individuals were graduated from a six weeks' training course organized by the Ministry of Interior at Cerveny Hradek, near Most. Pupils were trained chiefly to infiltrate into resistance movements both within Czechoslovakia and abroad, with the express purpose of revealing and denouncing members of such organizations. *

* Comment: The resistance movement within Czechoslovakia is said to be much greater than it was during the last war, but it is not well organized — it consists of a host of small groups working independently and with little direction. It is therefore believed that the Czechoslovak I.S. will meet with considerable success in penetrating these various networks.
